Capo 1

Intro: D – Em – G - A

Verse 1

D Em G A D Em G A
Comatosed, parked in front of a television
D Em G A D Em G A
Overdosed with good intentions
D Em G A D Em G A
You've said your life is a meaningless curse on the world
D Em G A
You can't expect to do anything
D Em G A
If you think the world has had it with you

Chorus

D Em G A D Em G A
So tell me you've started to believe this could be better
D Em G A D Em G A
From silver lines to palm trees you're commencing now

Verse 2

D Em G A D
If you're sure that everyone around you is the same
Em G A
Then don't believe me when I say this
D Em G A
I will live a life unlike you
D Em G A
I will live a life unlike you
D Em G A
The sun, the light, the trees, the earth
D Em G A D Em G A
The breeze, the birds are waiting at your doorway now

Bridge

G

How do we know how this life ends?

Bm D

There isn't a whole lot we can do

G

But while we're here we give it our best

Bm D

And stay above the waters that surround us

G

Fighting the waves and reaching the shore

Bm D

Breaking through the insides of a mindset

G

I'm waiting; I'm waiting,

Bm D A

I am waiting for you to hear me out
